- The 4-H CARTEENS Program registration will begin 15 minutes prior to start time. Door will be unlocked at this time. Youth arriving late will be considered absent from the sessions and said absence will be reported to the respective County Juvenile Court. Youth will need to re-schedule with the court.
- CELL PHONES: Cell phones are not permitted to be in use during session and may or may not be collected prior to session beginning.
- Number of Participants: Only the participant will be allowed to enter the session. All others are asked to wait in the car.
- The fee to participate in the NWOhio 4-H CARTEENS program will be $25.00 per offender. The $25.00 (cash only - no checks, no credit) is due at registration before you are permitted to participate in the program. Receipts and certificate of attendance provided. This fee is separate from your court fees. The court does not collect the CARTEEN fee.
- No one will be allowed to leave during the break or at any time before the session is completed. If participant leaves, they will be reported to their respective County Juvenile Court. The $25.00 fee will not be refunded and you will be required to appear for a further court hearing.
- Respectable behavior is required at all times during the 4-H CARTEENS Program session. Juvenile traffic offenders exhibiting unruly, disrespectful or uncooperative behavior shall be removed from the session and reported to their respective County Juvenile Court following the 4-H CARTEENS Program
- Test: At the end of the session there will be an examination given which each youth must pass with a minimum of 75% in order to successfully complete the program. Failure to pass the exam will necessitate repetition of the program. Grades and attendance will be sent to your County Juvenile Court. Please notify the coordinator should you need assistance with the test.
- Weather: In case of inclement weather, the coordinator will contact you via the phone number on your registration.
- Cancellation or emergencies at the last minute – contact the coordinator listed.
