Difference Between “A” and “B” Classes

- * “A” classes are for FIRST year youth and FIRST year dogs with NO prior show experience at that level
- * “A” classes can NEVER be repeated by the youth OR the dog under any circumstances
- * “B” classes can be repeated by youth and dog
 - * Until winning first place (at State Fair)
 - * County rules may be more strict
 - * Youth cannot just stay in same level “B” class because they do not want to train at a higher level

Once a youth and/or dog has shown in an “A” class, neither can ever go back to that same “A” class. This is true with a different dog also. Once a youth and/or dog has shown in a “B” class and has moved to a higher Level, they can never go back to the lower Level “B” class with the same dog. Youth can go back to lower Level “B” class with a different dog. If a 9-year-old, inexperienced youth joins 4-H with a dog that has shown at the Graduate Novice Level, then they have to show at the Graduate Novice B level, regardless of the youth’s experience.
