Agricultural Appreciation and Farmers Share Breakfast
Defiance Knight’s of Columbus Hall, Defiance
Wednesday, March 18, 2015, 8:00 am-10:00 am

In Celebration of National Ag Week - March 22-28, 2015, the Ohio State University Extension, the Defiance Soil and Water Conservation District, and the Defiance Area Chamber of Commerce will be hosting an Agricultural Appreciation Breakfast on Wednesday, March 18, 2015 at the Defiance Knight’s of Columbus Hall. The program will begin with a Farmer’s Share Breakfast at 8:00 am followed by the keynote speaker, Randy Frazier, who will present “What I’ve Learned from 9000 Years of Farming”, with the program concluding by 10:00 am.

The Defiance County agriculture industry has high impact value and equally high impact people. These individuals serve or have served as leaders, role models, innovators, entrepreneurs, and conservationists. We will formally recognize their efforts with an Agriculture Hall of Fame for Defiance County. The 2015 Agriculture Hall of Fame honors will be presented at the Agriculture Appreciation Breakfast.

If you are not familiar with a Farmer’s Share Breakfast, participants of the event will pay the approximate amount that a farmer is paid from typical breakfast menu prices. Our breakfast menu for March 18th is scrambled eggs w/ toppings, pancakes w/ syrup, sausage gravy w/ biscuits, homefries, sausage links, breakfast rolls, muffins, coffee cake, fresh fruit bowl, assorted yogurts, orange juice, milk and coffee. The menu price of these items total $8.50 but we will be charging $3.00 per person for this Farmer’s Share Breakfast and program.

RSVP Required by March 12th. Call 419-782-4771
